“River Reflections”

The Garden Club of the Middle Peninsula (GCMP) was formed in 1994 and is made up of members from the counties of Essex, King and Queen, King William and Middlesex. In 1997, the GCMP became the 47th club to join The Garden Club of Virginia. The GCMP is proud to present our first Garden Club of Virginia Flower Show.

The Middle Peninsula lies between the Rappahannock and the York Rivers. The rivers were the lifeblood of the Native Americans, the early settlers and their descendants, as well as the immigrants who arrived later. The first settlement was in 1608, a year after Jamestown's founding, when John Smith landed on the banks of the Rappahannock River, now known as Tappahannock. Urbanna and other river settlements soon followed. These rivers and their adjoining creeks became the first highways, and later provided places for homes, industry, recreation and for reflection. The early churches became natural gathering places for people of good will; this tradition continues today. To celebrate the rivers and their natural landscapes and our Middle Peninsula's heritage, our theme for the 2006 and 2007 Rose Shows will be “River Reflections”. In 2006, the emphasis is placed on the natural treasures of our area; the 2007 Rose show will emphasize the area's historical treasures.

The GCMP welcomes you to our show. We hope you will enjoy the beauty of the roses, the loveliness of the setting on the banks of the Rappahannock River and most of all, the hospitality and friendliness of the Middle Peninsula.

RULES FOR HORTICULTURE DIVISION

1. Advance registration is requested and should be made no later than September 15, 2006.

Registration Chairman: Johanna von Walter
(804) 443-6751
E-mail: roseshow@inna.net

2. ALL ROSES MUST BE BROUGHT TO THE PLACEMENT TABLE. The Horticultural Classification committee will then place them alphabetically by name of the variety on the exhibit tables. (EXCEPTION: Section II and Section III entries may be placed by the exhibitor).
3. Only one person or couple may exhibit from a single garden.
4. All roses exhibited in this division must have been grown outside in the open ground without cover and under the direct supervision of the exhibitor.
5. The Rose Show Committee will furnish appropriate containers, entry tags, and material for stem support.
6. Roses must be shown under their ARS EXHIBITION NAME with an entry tag filled in correctly, completely and attached to the container by the exhibitor. Mailing labels are preferred.
7. Grooming or dressing blooms is permitted if it improves the appearance of the specimen and is skillfully done. The presence of any foreign substance applied to the foliage, stem, or bloom to improve the specimen will disqualify the entry.
8. After being placed on the show tables, entries are under the jurisdiction of The Show Committee, which is authorized to remove wilted or inferior blooms at any time during the show.

ARTISTIC DIVISION

Roses must predominate in all arrangements

SECTION V

Class-40 Artistic

Inter Club Class: Open only to Garden Club of Virginia member clubs and exhibited in the name of the club. Accessories permitted unless the schedule states otherwise.

Class 40A:

The Rappahannock River

The name of the river comes from an Algonquian language word “lappihanne” (also noted as “toppehannock”), meaning “river of quick, rising water” or “where the tide ebbs and flows”. The Rappahannock rises from the mountains of Fauquier County flowing southeastward to the low tidal marshlands of the Middle Peninsula where it enters the Chesapeake Bay.

- A Creative Line arrangement, to reflect the path of the Rappahannock River. To be viewed from the front and displayed on a 42” tall pearl- grey pedestal against a reddish-brown brick wall. The pedestal top is 12” square. Arrangements are not to exceed 24” in width. No limit to the length of the creative line. (FSH, page 82)

Class 40B:

The York River

The York River was formerly known as the Pamaunk River by the Native Americans, and was originally named Charles River by the colonists of the Virginia Company in the 17th century. It is formed at West Point by the confluence of the Mattaponi and Pamunkey Rivers.

-A Creative Line Mass arrangement, reflecting the point of confluence of the Mattaponi and Pamunkey Rivers. To be placed on a table, 30” high and 30” deep, covered with a white cloth. A grey- green screen 40” tall and 30” wide will be the background for each exhibit. The display spaces will be divided by green ribbon. (FSH, page 82)

Class 40C:

The Pamunkey River

Named for the Pamunkey tribe settlement along its banks, the Pamunkey is a rural, freshwater river that winds through the marshes and estuaries of the Middle Peninsula. The Pamunkey serves as the westernmost boundary of the Middle Peninsula.

-A Free Form arrangement, to reflect the circuitous flow of the Pamunkey River. To be placed on a table, 30” high by 30” deep, covered with a white cloth. A black screen 40” tall by 30” wide will be the background for each exhibit. The display spaces will be divided by green ribbon. (FSH, page 81)

Class 40 D:

The Mattaponi River

The Nature Conservancy describes the Mattaponi River and its associated waterways, which flow into the Atlantic Ocean, as “the heart of the most pristine freshwater complex on the Atlantic Coast”. The Mattaponi is home to a number of delicate plant species as well as bald eagles.

- An Underwater design, reflecting the pristine nature of the Mattaponi River. To be viewed from the front and displayed on a 42” tall pearl- grey pedestal against a reddish-brown brick wall. The pedestal top is 12 “ square. The pedestal may be draped. (FSH, page 84)

Individual Artistic Classes

Limited to 6 entries per class

Class 41- Open Class

Dragon Run

Ranked as the most important ecological site in Virginia by the Smithsonian Institute, the Dragon Run is a complex ecosystem of streams and waterways. The Dragon’s swamps, streams and marshes embrace a wilderness unparalleled on the Chesapeake. Deep in its ancient cypress woods, one finds the beauty of nature combined with mystery.

-An Ikebana arrangement in the Moribana style, reflecting an island in the Dragon Swamp, celebrating the mystical nature of Dragon Run. More than one pin holder may be used. To be displayed on a table 30” high, covered with natural burlap and placed in front of a reddish-brown brick wall. Each display area is 30” deep by 30” wide with spaces divided by ribbon. (FSH, page 79)

Class 42 –Open Class (Novice Class)

The Piankatank River

The Piankatank River rises from the cypress-lined shores of Dragon Run and winds through long stretches of undeveloped woodlands, before flowing into the Rappahannock River. The fertile lands surrounding the Piankatank are a natural habitat for a wide variety of flora and fauna.

- A Pot-et-Fleurs, to reflect a scene reminiscent of the untouched banks of the Piankatank. To be displayed on table, 30” high, covered with natural burlap, in front of a black niche that is 32” high by 24” wide with 12” wings. There will be 2 entries per table. Novice class-open to those who have not previously won a GCV blue ribbon for artistic design. (FSH, page 86)

Class 43-Open Class

Piscataway Creek

One of the many creeks found trailing off the Rappahannock, the tidal marshes of this estuary are a naturalist's delight.

-A Small Arrangement reflecting the serene beauty of the Piscataway Creek. May not exceed 8 inches in any direction. To be viewed from the front and displayed on a grey-green mantle 47½" tall on a shelf 58" long, 8½" deep, against a reddish-brown brick wall. Green ribbon will separate the arrangements. (FSH, pages 77-78)

Class 44-Open Class

Urbanna Creek

Home to the historic port town of Urbanna, today the picturesque harbor is filled with the scene of boat parades and yacht races.

-A Table Exhibit to celebrate a yachting event on Urbanna Creek. Each 47" round table will be covered with a white cloth, and should be set for two. Additional linens optional. (FSH, page 85)

Lodging and Travel Information

The 68th annual Garden Club of Virginia Rose Show will be held on October 4 and 5, 2006 in the Charlton Performing Arts Center, located in Marston Hall, on the campus of Christchurch School. Christchurch School is located on Route 33, one hour East of Richmond, Virginia. Fredericksburg, Williamsburg, Norfolk, Charlottesville, and Washington DC are all within an easy driving distance.

The Christchurch School campus provides plenty of free parking and is close to the shops, restaurants, and inns of historic Urbanna, Irvington and Deltaville. Complete travel directions, as well as a comprehensive listing of lodging and dining options can be found on the Christchurch School web site, under the Admissions tab, in the “Visitors Center” section:

www.christchurchschool.org/common/visitor/default.asp?from=admission

A block of rooms at The Comfort Inn, Gloucester, Virginia (804-695-1900) has been set aside at a special rate for Rose Show participants and visitors. As rooms are limited, please call early and refer to the Garden Club of Virginia Group Rate. This rate is good until September 1, 2006.

The Garden Club of the Middle Peninsula wishes to thank the administration, staff and students of Christchurch School for the donation of show facilities for both the 2006 and 2007 Rose Shows. Additionally, we are grateful for the invaluable time, effort and support of the entire Christchurch School community in the production of The Garden Club of Virginia's 2006 and 2007 Rose Shows. Go Blue!

A special thanks to Ann Chenoweth for her artwork. Artwork is not to be reproduced without express permission of the artist
