

The Elizabeth Cabell Dugdale Award is presented annually for outstanding work in conservation to an organization, industry or individual who is not a GCV member.

2020 Recipients

Christine and Frederick Andreae, residents of Bentonville, established the non-profit Scenic 340 Project, conserving over 2300 acres of forest and farmland. Pictured here accepting the Exemplary Forest Stewards Honor. Proposed by The Garden Club of Warren County. Meet the Andreaes.

Spikenard Farm Honeybee Sanctuary in Floyd is a model for teaching, outreach and education and home to over 30 hives. Proposed by Mill Mountain Garden Club. Learn More About Spikenard Farm.