

2022 GCV Daffodil Collection “ Love “

This year's daffodil collection is a reflection of matters of the heart, meaning, love. There are as many types of love as there are varieties of daffodils. We all share a passion for daffodils and this collection touches on some of the loves they represent. Plant more daffodils! Grow and share the love! Reference the ADS' www.Daffseek.org for more photos and details.

When you place your order, you will be sent an emailed acknowledgment, which will include a 'process date'.
Your order should arrive about 10 days after that date, which should be around the time of your first frost and the best time to plant daffodil bulbs in your area. (mid-October to mid-November) If you are not going to be in town during that timeframe, please give us a call and we will do what we can to arrange for your order to arrive at a more convenient time for your schedule.
 When your order leaves our warehouse, you will receive an email from whichever company (UPS, FedEx or USPS) is scheduled to deliver them to you.
