

Horticulture Awards

Overall

Best in Show--- Mollie Reinhart, Tuckahoe

New Member Award--- Dana Harris, Albemarle awarded to the best horticulture exhibit entered by one who became a member of GCV since 2015

Propagation Award----- Sue Thompson, Tuckahoe awarded to the best entry that was propagated by the exhibitor

Green Award -- Catherine Leitch, Roanoke Valley to be awarded to the best horticulture entry grown without pesticides.

Sweepstakes Award---- Tuckahoe awarded to the club with the highest number of points earned

Pollinator Award ----- Tuckahoe

awarded to the club with the most entries

General Horticulture

Oatlands Award ----- Meg Turner, James River

for the best perennial grown for bloom

Goshen Pass Award ---- Mollie Reinhart, Tuckahoe

for the best perennial grown for foliage

Mill Mountain Award -- Sue Thompson, Tuckahoe

for best pollinator

Belmont Award----- Virginia Vinyard, Mill Mountain

best annual

Montpelier Award ----- Marcia McGrath, Spotswood

best bulb, corm, tuber or rhizome

Richmond Low Line Award ----- Mary Young Tracy, Northern Neck

best flowering, berried, seeded or fruited branch

Blandy Award - ----- Catherine Leitch, Roanoke Valley

best herb collection

Roses

Jane Marshall Broyhill Memorial Trophy ----- Bernice Walker, Dolley Madison best hybrid tea, grandiflora or their climbing sports bloom or spray

Edith Farr Elliott Memorial Award -----Kathy Watson, Tuckahoe

best floribunda and their climbing sports bloom or spray

Elizabeth Campbell Wright Perpetual Trophy--- Not Awarded

best polyantha sprays and their climbing sports

Captain and Mrs. Edgar M. Williams Trophy ---- Debbie Stevenson, Fairfax

best modern shrub

Bernice S. Walker Perpetual Trophy-----Bernice Walker, Dolley Madison best miniature

Pat Wade Taylor Miniflora Award-----Bernice Walker, Dolley Madison

best miniflora

Yancie Donegan Casey Memorial Award ----- Mary Young Tracy, Northern Neck

best fragrant rose

Benjamin F. Parrott Cup -----Marcia McGrath, Spotswood

best novice exhibit

Mary Jean Printz Award -----Tuckahoe

best inter club exhibit of six hybrid tea or grandifloras

F. Whitney Godwin Memorial Trophy----- Hunting Creek Garden Club

best inter club entry of three sprays

Dr. and Mrs. James R. Hundley Trophy ----- Bernice Walker, Dolley Madison awarded to the GCV member winning the greatest number of blue ribbons in the rose classes